GYRO CLUB ROSTER ADDITIONS / CORRECTIONS / CHANGES:

None at the moment.

PAST EVENTS:

Our speakers this past month were Marjorie Smith of the Diabetes Association (Foothills) and Mike Iliffe of Enersul. Both gave informative and interesting presentations.

Les Hamilton was our host for the annual Spring Brunch, which was held at the Calgary Zoo this year. A warm sunny day made this an ideal setting for one of our most popular functions. Clement Lanthier, the director of Animal Care and Habitat, gave an educational talk on the future plans of the Zoo. He also outlined the involvement of the Zoo in the Endangered Species program. Our thanks go to Les and Bea for a lovely day at the Zoo.

HEALTH OF THE CLUB:

Don Potts is recovering well after his recent hip replacement surgery. Ethan Compton is doing well with 2 casts – leg and wrist (separate accidents).

DID YOU HEAR..... From Bob Walker:

WORDS TO LIVE BY

Accept that some days you're the pigeon, and some days you're the statue.

Always keep your words soft and sweet, just in case you have to eat them.

Always read stuff that will make you look good if you die in the middle of it.

Drive carefully. It's not only cars that can be recalled by their maker.

Eat a live toad in the morning and nothing worse will happen to you for the rest of the day.

If you can't be kind, at least have the decency to be vague.

If you lend someone $20, and never see that person again, it was probably worth it.

It may be that your sole purpose in life is simply to serve as a warning to others.

Never buy a car you can't push.

Never put both feet in your mouth at the same time, because then you don't have a leg to stand on.

Nobody cares if you can't dance well. Just get up and dance.

The early worm gets eaten by the bird, so sleep late.

When everything's coming your way, you're in the wrong lane.

Birthdays are good for you; the more you have, the longer you live.

You may be only one person in the world, but you may also be the world to one person.

Some mistakes are too much fun to make only once.

Don't cry because it's over; smile because it happened.

We could learn a lot from crayons:

some are sharp, some are pretty, some are dull, some have weird names, and all are different colors, but they all have to learn to live in the same box.

A truly happy person is one who can enjoy the scenery on a detour.

Happiness comes through doors you didn't even know you left open.

And for a smile:

A psychotherapist, starting from scratch, was having such success in his business that he could now afford to have a proper shop banner advertising his wares. So he told a kid to paint the signboard for him and put it above his shop entrance.

But, instead of his business building up, it began to slacken. He had especially noticed the ladies shying away from his shop after reading the signboard. So he decided to check it out himself. Then he began to understand why!

The boy found a small wooden board so he had to split the word in 3 places.

The sign read:

Psycho-therapist.
