DEATHTRAP

February 12 – April 20, 2003

Seemingly comfortable ensconced in his charming Connecticut home, Sidney Bruhl, a successful writer of Broadway thrillers, is struggling to overcome a “dry spell” which has resulted in a string of failures and a shortage of funds. A possible break in his fortunes occur when he receives a script from a student in the seminar he has been conducting at a potential Broadway hit.

Sidney’s plan, which he devises with his wife’s help, is to offer collaboration to the student, and idea that the younger man quickly accepts. Thereafter suspense mounts steadily as the plot begins to twist and turn with devilish cleverness, and with such an abundance of thrills and laughter, audiences will be held enthralled until the final startling moments of the play.
